

Sample RC III Bibliography Submitted by a CDA Participant

Topic: Possessiveness

Title: It's Mine!

Author: Gina and Mercer Mayer

Publisher: Golden Books Publishing Co. New York

Copyright Date: 1993

Summary: This book was about a little boy who didn't want to share his toys or other items with his sister until one day he saw how his selfishness made his parents sad. After seeing their sadness, he decided to share his things with his sister to make her and parents happy and eventually he found out that sharing made him happy too.

Topic: Separation Anxiety

Title: You Go Away!

Author: Dorothy Corey

Publisher: Albert Whitman and Co.

Copyright Date: 1978

Summary: This picture book helps children deal with separation anxiety whereas in this particular book a child was anxious when the parent went away on a business trip or leaving the child but always coming back to pick him/her up.

Topic: Social and Emotional Development

Title: How Do I Love You?

Author: P.K. Hallinan

Publisher: Worthy Publishing Group

Copyright Dates: 1989

Summary: This simple story is a love poem from parent to child with the simple message, "I love you unconditionally." This book allows you to tell your own child just how much you love him or her and how important they are to you no matter what.

Topic: Building Endurance

Title: The Little Engine That Could

Author: Watty Piper

Publisher: Platt & Munk

Copyright: 1986

Summary: This classic tale of the little engine who wasn't afraid to try even though there were times when things got in his way but the little engine kept on trying repeatedly until she made it her destination. The little engine kept on saying, "I think I can, I think I can and when she finally arrived she said, "I thought I could, I thought I could.

Topic: Establishing Self-Regulation (Anger)

Title: Llama Llama Mad at Mama

Author: Anna Dewdney

Publisher: Putnam Books for Young Readers

Copyright Date: 2007

Summary: This book is about a young llama who wanted to play all day, but his play was abruptly interrupted when he had to go shopping with his mother, which made him angry. So once, he gets to the store he makes a huge mess inside. Once he realizes how upset he made his mother he apologizes and realizes how much he loves his mother instead of being angry with her in the beginning.

Topic: Self Confidence

Title: Proud Dylan

Author: Louise Forshaw

Publisher: Flying Frog Publishing Company

Copyright date: 2014

Summary: This book is about a little boy named Dylan who loves to draw and who's very proud of his drawings. However, one day something happens which makes him wonder if he's as good at drawing as he thinks he is. Dylan soon understands that being proud of his own work is all that really matters.

Topic: Discipline/Guidance

Title: Words are not for Hurting

Author: Elizabeth Verdick

Publisher: Free Spirit Publishing Co.

Copyright Date: 2004

Summary: This book shows how some words are loud and some words are soft. Some words are kind, and some are not. This book shows how even young children can learn the difference. Also, included in this book are charming pictures occupied with simple words that teaches little ones on how they can be responsible for what they say and for choosing words that are helpful and not harmful.

Topic: Divorce and Separation

Title: Dinosaurs Divorce

Authors: Laurie Krasny Brown and Marc Brown

Publisher: Little, Brown and Company

Copyright Date: 2009

Summary: A comprehensive, sensitive guide for changing families, Dinosaurs Divorce helps readers understand what divorce means, why it happens, and how to best cope with everyone's feelings.

Topic: Diversity and Cultural Awareness

Title: Shades of Black: A Celebration of Our Children

Author: Sandra L. Pinkney

Publisher: Cartwheel Books

Copyright Date: 2000

Summary: The beauty of African-American children is celebrated in this joyous picture book. An affirmative message for children of all races.

Topic: New Sibling in the Household

Title: My New Baby

Author: Rachel Fuller

Publisher: Child's Play International Copyright Date: 2009

Summary: A new addition to any family is exciting, but the experience can also be worrying and confusing for siblings. Coping with the new situations and emotions that arise can be very challenging.